Light Night 2012

Dear Parent or Guardian,

St Ann's Band is performing at the Light Night celebration in Nottingham Castle grounds on Friday 10th February 2012.

The performance will be in a marquee next to the Band Stand in the grounds of Nottingham Castle. Your child will need to arrive there at 5.00 PM with their instrument and their music. Please make sure they have eaten before they come, and make sure they wear warm clothes, as the performance will take place outside.

You will need to collect your child from the marquee after the performance, at 5.50pm. Please return the reply slip by Wednesday 1st February so we know how many performers to expect. Please let us know on the reply slip how your child is getting home.

Group	Arrival Time:	Performance Time:	Collection Time:
St Ann's Area Band	5.00 pm	5.30 pm	5.50 pm

Light Night is a celebration across the city where you can see Nottingham shine, with free entertainment, music, installations, projections and special offers. See www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/lightnight for more details, including special bus/tram offers.

The Area Band's performance in Nottingham Castle is completely free of charge - we look forward to seeing you there!
